He had a good house, and of course he tickled them all-sufficiently. Bound Over .- James Orr, hotel keeper in days ago charged with counterfeiting, was xamined yesterday before Commissioner White, and bound over in bail of $5,000, for his appearance at the next term of court. In default of bail he wast sent to jail.

Paro Orr .- The 124th Regiment was paid off yesterday. The streets were lively with gay uniforms and bran new citizens' clothes ust bought by the privates. The officer were social, convivial, hitarious, red-faced and full of-soda water.

ALABATES RELAPSE .- We were informed restorday noon by Surgeon General Barnes, that Governor Brough experienced a serious relapse in the forenoon, and strong fears were expressed that he could not outlive the day. We hope to be able soon to report his symptoms favorable.

The gallant boys of our Ohio regiments express themselves delighted with the treatment received by our citizens. All should call at Davis' Oak Hall to get their clothing-it is the largest and best emporium in the city.

THE BROWNELL STREET SCHOOL HOUSE .-Having heard so much about this new school house, in the City Council, we hope never to hear of it more. It is getting to he a fearfully interesting subject-not only to the Committee on Public Buildings, who have thrown up their connection therewith, but to us also. We would like to charter an earthquake or an electric bolt for a few seconds, in order to demolish that structure, and thus rid the Council and the reporters of this intolerable nuisance,

Mott & Haight have this day received a large invoice of white and brown linen shirts of the finest quality, which they are now prepared to offer to the public at surprisingly low prices. Call and see them. No. 136 Bank street, opposite the Weddell House. july18:230

CORRECTION .- It will be remembered that Mr. Sturges introduced into the Council, a week ago, a resolution ordering the payment of $250 to Thomas Jones, jr., for services as Acting Mayor during the absence of Mayors Senter and Chapin, It was therein inadvertently stated that Mayor Chapin had been absent sir weeks. Mr. Sturges rectified the mistake last night, by having the preamble of the resolution changed to read four weeks instead of six. He said he had no other wish than to do perfect justice to all parties.

PRESONAL .- Mejor General Schofield, acempanied by his wife and three children, and Col. Wherry, Chief of Staff, arrived at the Weddell House yesterday morning, from Chicago. He staid in the city a few hours, took a ride through it, received the call of several prominent citizens, briefly addressed the 187th Regiment, and left on the S:30 P. M. boat for Buffalo. The General proposes making a short visit to West Point, after which he will go to his command in North Carolina.

Is TRANSITU.-The 13th New York Battery, 85 men, under command of Captain Bundy and Lieutenant McClellan, reached this city from Columbus yesterday morning at five o'clock, and after a hearty breakfast at the Soldier's Home. resumed their journey homeward, over the Lake Shore road. The battery was made up of fine looking men. They expressed themselves highly delighted with the reception they met with here.

We know little of the history of the battery, but it could not have gone through the thirty-two battles, the names of which were on their banner, without having become a No. 1 military organization.

If you wish to find an elegant assortment of gantlemen's furnishing goods, neck ties, carfs, uniques, butterflies, &c., &c., go to Mott & Haight's, No. 136 Bank street, opposite the Weddell House. july 18:230

Upwards of five hundred soldiers arrived until paid off and disbanded. One of the organizations was BATTERY B, IST O. V. L. A. It reached the depot about five o'clock in the morning, over the C. C. & C. road. It was thought better to feed the men at Messrs. Wheeler and Russell's rooms at the depot than to march them at so early an hour to the Public Park. The battery numbers 110 members, and officered as follows:

Captain-N. A. Baldwin. First Lieutenants-R. G. Day, Clark ipture. second Lieutenants—David H. Troupe oseph Lanke or. First Sergeant—Henry Moats, Quartermaster Sergeant—Frank M. Yeck-

Sergeants-Lewis R. Penfield, John H. Binir, Wealey Wilson, Lewis Ferrier, Jar-radt Schmitz, William Singer. Captain Baldwin having been detained at Nashville, the men were in command of Lieutenant Clark Scripture. Battery B, perhaps better known as Standart's Battery," is a pet organisation with us, having been raised almost exclusively in this city and vicinity. It has sen hard service, and enough of it. It has always been on hand, fought well, done its whole duty, and has, consequently, made its mark. Cleveland is proud to receive and welcome home, after their valiant toil, such heroic and worthy representatives. After breakfast and a good rest, the boys fell into line and marched to the Park, headed by members of the Reception Committee and a brass band, and there joined Soldiers of the 107th and of Battery B :-Last night I was informed by the worthy Mayor of our city, of the anticipated arrival of the Battery, and this morning of that of the Regiment, and by him was requested to perform the pleasant duty of presenting to you, in behalf of the citizens of Cleveland, their sincere thanks for the invaluable ser-vices you have performed in the late great struggle, and tender to you a most cordial

We have watched and made ourselves ore or less familiar with the career of every regiment which has been engaged in the war, but it has been with peculiar in-terest we have studied the movements of those who went out from our own midst, as by the self-sacrificing spirit with which they tandered their services and by the heroic manner in which they have performed their part, the people of this county are able to say Old Cuyahoga has done her share, and nobly too, in the great work of crushing out this wicked rebellion.

We of this day and generation cannot appreciate, and much less is it possible for us to befittingly portray the great results of your success. A little over five years ago we were not permitted to enjoy, in all parts of our boasted land of freedom, one of the main principles of the organic law of our hose who went out from our own midst, as of our boasted land of freedom, one of the main principles of the organic law of our government—the very corner stone of our free institutions. It was more freely enjoyed in some of the governments of the old world than it was here. I allude to freedom of speech. If in restoring the Union, you brave men had opened all parts of the country to the free exercise of this blessed privilege, you would have placed the ful-crum of a lever which would in time have created a perfect harmony in all parts of the Government.

At the commencement of the war there was a foul blot on the fair fame of the Republic, and a curse and blight upon every garden of the country. This was an insti-tution/contrary to, and at war with, every principle of our form of government. To you and the brave comrades who have gone with you through the great struggle, under the guidance of an allwise and merciful Provides on are wejudabled the plur nice; Bound Over ... James Orr, notes seeper in and of opening the largest portion of our restline, who was brought here several land to free later. We feel confident that n five years from now there will be such widence of the results of the introduction of that system of labor in the Southern States, that every soldier will see in this dus compensation for the sacrifices he has made and the sufferings he has endured.

> rm. The people of the old world while wit-The people of the old world while witnessing the unprecedented bleasings our people enjoyed when the country was in a state of peace, were taught that when an intestine war arose, then the Government would at once dissolve, and lapse into a state of ausrchy. But it has been your privilege to satisfy the Union-loving masses of Europe, that it is as perfect in war as in peace; that it is formed to crush a rebellion as well as foreign foes, and that during the days of peace it so maintains and indicates the nobler qualities of its citizens, as to make heroes of them in war.

I will not, brave men, detain you longer. I will not, brave men, detain you longer. There is a welcome waiting for you in the family circle, around the old hearth-stone, that in love and tenderness surpasses any it is in our power to offer. Whatever fortune may attend you in future enterprises, you will always possess the consciousness that the services you have rendered your country in the tented field, are more valuable than those of ordinary life. More, you have shown to the world that our institutions make perfect soldiers of its civil-lans; in returning to your homes you will also show to the world, that of its soldiers it makes the best civilians. Once more I tender to you, on behalf of the citizens, a Col. Cooper replied as follows: In behalf of the men of the 107th Obio Regiment, I desire to return to the Mayor d citizens of Cleveland our hearty thanks and citizens of Cieveland off nearly tanaka for the kind provisions you have made for our reception. No one who has not experi-sneed the feelings of a soldier can appreci-ate our feelings upon such an occasion as this.

It is not your provisions that we care about nor the rest of the outward display, but it is the deep and noble spirit that lies at the bottom. We are entirely repaid for the sacrifices which we have made when we find such dear, good people to sustain us as you have been. It is true that there have been some who have not always sus have always been true in our darkest days, and we have indeed had dark days. In behalf of the regiment I again thank you, not with mere lip thanks, but only as a soldier can thank you.

The 107th was recruited mostly in Eries Huron and Stark counties, and was organsed in this city on September 6th, 1862. Three days later it went into Kentucky, but was sent back to Delaware early in October, but broke up quarters the last day of that month, and set out for the National Capitol. The regiment consists largely of Germans, who have proved themselves adnirable soldiers, as the Germans everywhere have done.

It went out with full ranks under the following field and staff officers :

Colonel-Seraphim Meyer. Lieutenant Colonel-Charles Mueller. Majoz—George Arnold.
Surgeon—C. A. Hartmann.
Assistant Surgeons—Andrew Wani
wetch and John Knaus.
Quartermaster—Daniel Umbstaetter.
Chaplain—Charles Beeklin.

It returns 440 strong under the following Lieutenant Colonel-J. S. Cooper, commanding. Major-F. C. Sruhrer.

Assistant Surgeon — Shields.
Quartermaster — Jacob Lichty.
Chaplain — R. F. Kabus.
Ohio has sent out no pluckier regiment then the 107th. It has participated in several of the fiercest battles of the war, and played in each a conspicuous part and left a shining mark. It was attached to Gen. Howard's corps (the 11th) of the Army of the Potomac, and was in the engagements of Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. It was be paid off in camp to-day. Since the fall of Charleston, it has been doing Provost duty in that modern Babylon-Babylon all but the splendor. It was mustered out there on the 12th inst.

The boys were treated to a sumptuou breakfast, when, learning that Major General Schofield was in town, they marched here yesterday morning, to go into camp | to the Weddell House and formed on Bank street. The General appeared upon the balcony, and after the cheering had subsided, made them this little speech :

CITIERS AND SOLDIERS :- I congratulate you upon the termination of the war, and the inauguration of peace. You have now the opportunity of returning to your wives, your aweethearts, and your little ones, who have been waiting so long and anxiously to receive you. May your reception, where-

I leave Cleveland to visit the surrounding towns, and will be absent ten or twelve days. Communications addressed to me, Box 3,523, Cleveland, Ohio, will reach me safely.

I must state one or two circumstances that have afforded me most heartfelt pleasure. At the meeting at Judge Tilden's, a lady in deep mourning entered. I knew by her manner she was a stranger. I approached her. She, like myself, had lived in Louisisns. We had a pleasant conversation. At parting she slipped into my hand five dollars, as the widow's mite. On Saturday I received the following

Cleveland, July 18, 1865.

THAT MUSIC BEAND .- Those persons who music stand erected approximates, near the northeast corner of the Park, by the Com mittee on Public Buildings, provoked a witty passage, nay, a secies of witty pasasges in the City Council last night, wh You have so settied the pernicious doctrine of State Rights, as taught by leading rebels, that hone will hereafter be found so boid as to place themselves on their platof the more modern wits, alive or dead, have ever conceived or written of anything so supremely, ridiculously funny as the debate concerning said music stand. One dignified member's limber, facile, adventurous fancy and scaring imagination availed to reach so high a point that the muses in their own heaven supplied him so supremely felicitous a phrase, in designation or description of said stand, as a "salt box." Like the dastardly bird that let fall, according to the fable, a to make heroes of them in war.

These are some of the less glowing results of your successful prosecution of Eachylus, this audacious member dropped that weighty phrase upon the unprotected heads of the members of the offending Committee, and the general 'squah" o brains was the only tragic feature to mar the hilarity of the occasion. Humor, witty retort, sarcasm, mock sentiment, carbonio acid repartee, and various other qualities of wit were poured out there like water, for the space of ten minutes, dog chesp, like buncombe on the Fourth of July.

We see we can't give any adequate no ion, to others, of the scene, and so we quit with the single remark that such a perfect abandon of humor, such a reckless, prodigal sling of wit and fun, have not been seen on this earth since Cervantes trotted out Don Quixote and Sancho Pansa on Rosinante and Dapple. Boldiers arriving from the front, after being pain off, will find Davis' Oak Hall the place to buy their clothing.

SALEM, O., July 12, 1865. EDITOR LEADER: Yesterday a termoon Mr. Calvin Moore, while hauling barley, accidentally fell from the load and dislocated his neck. He died in a few hours. Mr. Moore has been long and favorably known as one of our best citizens, and was a prominent member of the Boclety of Friends, and formerly a teacher at Westtown Boarding School in Chester county, Ps. He has taught the Friend's School in this place for the last fifteen years, and aided in building up the educational interests of Salem. He will be a great loss to us. A new society has just been formed out of the remnant of Garrisonian Abolitionists, called the "Christian Society." It is Unitarian in faith, although not a Unitarian church. It is rather of the Theodore Parker stripe, requiring only a belief in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man and practical righteousness as evidence of Christian character, for test of membership. Mr. Ellis, from Illinois, has consented to work for the cultivation of the religious in favor of Luke Brannan, for $2.25 fees due him from the city in the case of French ci al. sgainst the city of Cleveland, and the time without the stated preaching of the gospel. Mr. Ellis is a young man of fine abilities as a speaker. The congregation is respectable in number and in point of general intelligence. This society is called the "broad guage" religous railroad track, by outsiders. The crops here and in this vicinity are heavy. Much of the hay has been damaged for want of help and by wet weather. Nothing doing in wool; there have not been five hundred pounds bought in Salem-Buyers and sellers are too far apart, the tormer offering fifty cents, the latter asking
